ANX. 1859.

GUTHRIE FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

There is a decided movement in Kentucky, in the home of Hon. James Guthrie, and there-about, in favor of that gentleman for the presidency, by the forthcoming Democratic National Convention of Chicago.

The Louisville Courier is now successful in its advocacy of Mr. Guthrie.

"There is a strong movement now in progress, designed to make James Guthrie, of Louisville, Kentucky, the next Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

The New York Tribune, which with all its energy and vigor, is in support of Mr. Guthrie,
